Editorial.

Say brother you that have not gave us your add yet, and we are here for Eight weeks and fighting to win an other week out. are you not going to give us in this way for a Christmas Memory.

We thank those who have come to our rescue and acted like we might belong to the same brother hood of man as they do and that we have a right live and let live same as they do Farmers and Laborers. We put the price of our paper to fifty cents a year to help you to take it this is less than one cent a week for your home paper. We thank all of those who have subscribed already. but there are more who have not subscribed than who have. To those let us urge you to take our paper. it will do some one of your children or your wife some good. Come before Xmas. Go to those merchants who adver tise.
They have more in you than the merchants who has not thought enough of you to ask you in your home paper to come and see them. Keep your friends always first in the top of your hats. That ask you to come and see the bargain he has to offer. you he is now affraid to advertise his goods and prices.

Tuberculosis Museum.

A museum devoted entirely to the study of tuberculosis has been established in the city of Darmstadt, Germany, in which it is proposed to assemble all possible facts in relation to the disease in order to induce the public to pay greater attention to sanitary and hygienic rules and thus aid in combating its spread.

The museum is in charge of men of the highest scientific attainments.
Among other features the symptoms of tuberculosis in every form will be shown by pictures, together with the various methods adapted by the medical profession to check them.

It is intended to be a traveling exhibition, and will be taken through all the large centers of population in Germany where a series of explanatory lectures will be delivered when ever it makes a halt.
